

BFCHRJ-033 – QA Analyst | Applications & Support Development | Bahrain

About the role:

The candidate must well versed in Software Quality Assurance. The individual will work closely with Developers, Project Managers and other Stakeholders throughout the SDLC, RFT automation, executing test iterations, tracking / reporting results, troubleshooting and coordinating defect resolution.

Your Responsibilities:

- Identifies, analyzes, and documents problems with software applications following the established methodology and ability to write clear, concise well-structured documents.
- Write Test Plan / Test Strategies / Test Cases independently.
- Write and execute test scenarios based on analysis of system requirements/ enhancement.
- Participate in issue troubleshooting with different teams to drive towards root cause identification and resolution.
- Defect Life Cycle management and reporting through Product Tracker or similar tools such as Quality Center, Jira.
- Evaluates and tests new software applications according to business and functional requirements.
- Communicates significant issues or developments identified during quality assurance activities and provides recommended process improvements.
- Prepares reports to communicate involvement and results of quality assurance activities.
- Excellent organizer with solid planning and problem-solving skills.

About You

You are required to have University Degree in Computer Science / IT / Software Engineering or equivalent.

- Minimum 3 years of software quality assurance experience in a software development environment and practical exposure with SDLC
- Minimum 2 years' experience of automated testing tools IBM Rational Functional Tester (RFT) and similar tools.
- Strong background in Java programming/coding which help for RFT automation.
- Minimum 1 year experience in performance / stress testing tools.
- Strong background in Remittance/Foreign Exchange and Banking systems domains.
- Good knowledge on Quality Assurance standards such as CMMI/ ISO.

- Good knowledge on compliance and Anti Money Laundering concepts.
- Experience in Smoke, Functional, System, Integration and Regression testing.
- Non-Functional requirement testing exposure such as security, performance and compatibility.
- Experience and capable of testing real time API integration and Windows Services
- Database skills and SQL query
- Self-starter who can work independently and handle multiple priorities and deadlines
- Quick learner who can rapidly master all aspects of job with limited training
- Ability to grasp requirement swiftly
- Exceptional interpersonal skills and leadership skills
- Team motivation /Team working
- Good verbal and written business communication in English.